a very pleasant excursion.
You could not have had a better house visit & you can go to & from the Fillet bag depot in cars -

My Maun lives near tell you how to get to us I will take you to Sullivan's -

I should delight to see you in this part of the come -

I hope you will feel willing to tell Mr. Owen for his book - about that conversation you & Mr Thompson had with Mr. Lincoln - that so completely won your confidence & which I believe you never have published -

Yrs truly Eliz. Peabody with more fellow feeling than Mr Mann - ~~to whom~~ we have good reason to believe - very much liked & valued him when they were in Congress together - I have had curiosity to look out Mr Lincoln's old Speeches there in the Globe - & I find the same man - especially in certain resolutions of enquiring into Mr Polk's message about the Mexican War - & a speech on these Resolutions some time after -

Mattie Griffith & her Aunt are in Concord this summer - Harry rented a small furnished house all October - Don't you want to come up & see them - & also me?

I do not ~~know~~ ^{know} what you thought of the letters then - but perhaps now you will
possibly earned an able very settlement. I hope you will have interest enough to read Mrs Mann's life
not fail to see how entirely earnest & sincere he was in this cause - altho his method was his own - & it was his instinct not to complicate his lifework.
I think none will grieve

My dear Mr Garrison,

118 Will it be possible for you or for any body to procure those two letters of Mr Mann's addressed to yourself which were written just after the controversy with Mr Phillips which proved so unsatisfactory - Those letters we think were a most admirable statement of the argument for antislavery men's acting under the Constitution of the United States against slavery & F. N. Mann writes them to form a part of the volume of antislavery papers which he means to publish as soon as possible. - He had the two letters which were given
